Hi Carol,

Thank you so much for your reply and for the information. That is the most information that I have seen on Curtis. Bits and pieces are beginning to fall into place. My husband said he remembered hearing of Aunt Stella (who was not an aunt to him). With the different wives of Curtis, it becomes very confusing. My father-in-law rarely spoke of his father and, then, it wasn't fondly. We have no pictures of Curtis--at least none that we know of. From the R.B. Hayes website, I have gathered that Curtis had 4 wives who died with his name, not counting Helen. Glenn, my-father-in-law, spoke very highly of Peter & Sally Berryman, who raised him for a time. Does Dollie have an e-mail address? I would love to write to her.

Glenn died almost 3 years ago. He lived his life handicapped from being shot in the knee during from W.W.II. His mother signed for him to be accepted in the service before his 16th birthday and he was injured when he was 18. He didn't have much life as a youth. Somehow he became a wonderful man with very high family values. He struggled greatly in later life as a result of his injuries. I noticed in an article from Glenn's scrapbook that there is a Victor LaGrand mentioned--any relative of yours?

I have attached what info. that I have about his family. Parts are quite sketchy. Thanks again for your help................Patricia Berryman

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

FOR MY WIFE

Because You Mean So Much

Dear.

I may not often put in words
The things I feel about you
Or tell you just how empty
Life would seem without you,
But now that it's your birthday
I especially want to say
How much your love has meant to me--
How much it means today.

Happy Birthday

the Crob.

The body of Charles W. Schneider, 76, will be brought to Union cemetery here for interment Friday afternoon, following last rites in Hessville Lutheran church at 2 o'clock. H. E. Burmann, Elmore mortician, was called to Fremont to take charge of the body after death, Tuesday afternoon.

Only a few weeks ago Mr. Schneider and his wife and their daughter, Mrs. LeGrand, and husband returned from their winter sojourn at Orlando Beach, Florida, and as he had seemed to be in his usual good health, his sudden death was a great shock to his relatives and friends. The remains were taken to the home of the brother Wednesday afternoon from the Henry Burman funeral parlors in Elmore where the body was taken for burial preparation following death.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Stevanna Burkett Schneider; two daughters, Mrs. William Mincer and Mrs. Arthur A. LeGrand; one son, Emery A. Schneider, all of Fremont; three brothers, Philip Schneider, Fremont; Louis Schneider of Washington township, and Christian Schneider of Hessville; two sisters, Mrs. Sophia Graham of Bradner, and Mrs. Lizzie Reed of Sandusky; 15 grandchildren and a large number of other more distant relatives and hosts of friends One son Parry who was a member of Co. He appeared to be in his usual good health and news of the death of this well known man following the brief illness came as a severe shock to his many relatives and large circle of friends.

The deceased was a native of Washington township where he was born Nov. 3, 1856, the son of Christian and Sophia Strach Schneider, pioneer residents of the township. He engaged in farming and was also an oil pumper for 20 years for the Paragon Oil Company in the Washington township field where he pumped wells on his own property and adjoining leases.

He was united in marriage March 23, 1882, to Miss Stevanna Burkett by the late Rev. Puppin in Hessville. The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary March 23, 1932, at Orlando, Fla., where they were spending the winter with a gathering of relatives and friends.

In the fall of 1917 Mr. Schneider retired from the farm and moved to Fremont where he had since resided with the exception of the winter months which he spent in Florida. During the World War he served as janitor at the Atkinson school. He was a member of the Hessville Lutheran church and attended the Grace Lutheran church, Fremont, after his removal here.

The Rev. K. C. Buchanan, of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church, conducted funeral rites at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Weller-Wonderly funeral home for Curtis Berryman, 62, World War I veteran, who died Monday in Toledo hospital following a two-year illness. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

Warren Baker, Dick Gray, LaMar and Jack Berryman, Don and Ron Baker, all nephews, served as pallbearers.

CHARLES SCHNEIDER, one of Washington Township's sterling citizens and successful farmers, resides on a farm of eighty acres, twenty of which he owns, twenty of which belong to Mrs. Emeline Burkett, while the other forty are owned jointly by Mr. Schneider and Mrs. Burkett, and on this latter tract are located four oil wells belonging to Mrs. Burkett and three belonging to Mr. Schneider. He was born in Washington Township, Sandusky County, Ohio, November 3, 1856, and is a son of Christian and Sophia (Strock) Schneider. The paternal grandparents of Mr. Schneider were Henry and Mary (Lehr) Schneider, whose lives were spent in Germany. Of their eight children, only two came to America, Christian and William, the latter of whom died in California, in 1908.

Christian Schneider was born in Germany, October 9, 1834, and came to the United States in 1852. He was a blacksmith by trade and this occupation he engaged in in different parts of Sandusky County and during one year in Indiana. He then purchased land and was interested in farming for some years, but has practically retired from all active work and lives in his comfortable home in the village of Hessville. He married Sophia Strock and they had the following children: Charles; Louisa, who married Leonard Schwartz, resides in Washington Township; Elizabeth, who lives in Sandusky County, married (first) Christian Mool and (second) Jacob Reed; Louis, who married Adella Whitney, lives in Washington Township; Christian, who married Catherine Schmaltz; Philip, who married Altie Bowmer; Sophia, who has been twice married, first to George Mowery and after his death, to Benjamin Graham; and Ida and William, both deceased.

Charles Schneider attended the district schools in Washington Township and has been engaged in farming and stockraising all his mature life, helping his father until he was twenty-one years old and after that he rented his grandfather Philip Strock's farm and also operated threshing machine in that vicinity for two years. He next rented a farm from his father and a few years later became interested in his present property as detailed above. In addition to his agricultural operations he does all his own pumping and his own and Mrs. Burkett's land produce seventy barrels of oil a month. He also does pumping on four other leased tracts, two owned by M. G. Norton, one by W. Hoves and one by W. L. Thomas. The first pumping Mr. Schneider did was thirteen years ago for John Clemans and then for William Helter.

In 1882, Mr. Schneider was married to Miss Stevana Burkett, the only child of Stephen and Emeline (Wilson) Burkett. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider have four children, namely Bertha, born in 1887; Arthur Emery, born in 1890; Perry Ray, born in 1892; and Helen, born in 1898. Mr. Schneider was reared in the Lutheran Church, but the other members of the family belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church. In politics he is a Democrat and he has frequently been called upon to serve in township offices and although he is a very busy man, was one of the best road superintendents the township ever had, for two years, and a school director for about the same time.

* EXCLUDABLE SICK PAY

[1] Includes tips reported by employee. This amount is before payroll deductions or "sick pay" exclusions.

[2] This block is for use in reporting salary or other compensation which was not subject to withholding. See Circular E. Add this item to wages in figuring the amount to be reported as wages and salaries on your income tax return.

[3] One-twelfth of this amount was withheld to finance the cost of Hospital Insurance Benefits. The remainder is for old-age, survivors, and disability insurance.

[4] If your wages were subject to social security taxes, but are not shown, these wages are the same as wages shown under "Income Tax Information," but not more than $6,600.

FORM W-2—U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING U.S. INCOME TAX RETURN

Who Must File.—If your income in 1966 was $600 or more ($1,200 if 65 years of age or over), or your net earnings from self-employment were $400 or more, you must file an income tax return. Forms may be obtained from the District Director of Internal Revenue, your employer, bank, or post office.

A single person with income of less than $600 ($1,200 if 65 years of age or over) should file a return to get a refund if tax was withheld. A married person with income less than her (his) own personal exemption(s) should file a joint return with husband or wife to get the smaller tax or larger refund. To assure any benefit of the split-income provisions, a married couple should file a joint income tax return.

Filing on Form 1040A.—Form 1040A may be used if your gross income (or the combined income of husband and wife) was less than $10,000 and consisted entirely of wages subject to withholding and not more than $200 of dividends, interest, and other wages.

If you file Form 1040A and your income is less than $5,000, you may figure your own tax or let the Internal Revenue Service do it for you. If your income is $5,000 or more but less than $10,000, you must use the standard deduction and compute your own tax. The use of the tax table or the standard deduction eliminates the need to list contributions, interest, taxes, losses, medical expenses, child care expenses, and certain miscellaneous deductions. The tax tables and tax computation schedule are provided in Form 1040A instructions for this purpose. If you compute your tax any balance due must be paid in full with the return. If the Service computes the tax for you and there is an underpayment, a bill will be sent to you. In any case where there is an overpayment a refund check will be sent to you.

File Form 1040 instead of Form 1040A if—(1) you had income from sources other than wages, dividends, and interest, (2) either husband or wife itemizes deductions, (3) you claim the status of head of household or surviving husband or wife, (4) you claim retirement income credit, (5) you claim "sick pay" exclusion for an amount included in wages shown on this form, or (6) you claim deductions for travel, moving, transportation, or "outside salesman" expense.

Filing on Form 1040.—Form 1040 may be used by all taxpayers and is designed to report all types of income and deductions.

The Barn

We have all heard the expressions "as big as a barn" and "as cold as a barn," but how many of us know from experience how interesting an old-time one could be?

Built of native timber sometime around the middle of the nineteenth century, our barn in Whitley County is still standing, its great walnut beams, hand-hewn and mortised almost indestructible, though time has played havoc with the exterior. The upper floor is reached by an earthen bank and plank bridge, a formidable climb for a team of straining horses with a tottering wagon of hay. Whittled oak rungs between walnut four by fours comprise ladders on either side of the barn floor. A granary of walnut boards stands in one corner, with partitions for wheat, oats, and rye, and a stairway to the lower floor descends from the opposite one. Here are the stalls for horses and cows, each with a manger for hay and box for corn or chop-feed.

The barn of my childhood was a second home, a place for amusement, for a diversity of activities and living creatures. Sparrows built their nests under the rafters and in the shutters, doves didn't bother with nests, they laid their eggs and raised their squabs on the wide side beams. Their eggs were shaped to roll in circles rather than over the edge. Chickens hid their eggs in the hay, cats brought their kittens into the world in secret places. Mice scampered about; one might find a watchful cat silently waiting beside a hole gnawed into the granary. Owls hunted for them and we could hear their quavering hoots at night. Barn swallows swooped into the open doors to their nests plastered against the ends of the stalls. Crickets and moths and a host of other tiny creatures found nourishment in the bits of straw and hay that littered the floors.

A medley of sounds came from our barn. A cow might be missing her veal calf, she could moo about it for days. Horses neighed as they heard the rattle of corn in the metal bushel basket. Cats meowed from their circle around their feeding pan and they watched the first splashes of milk hitting the galvanized pail. Birds twittered and cooed, chickens cackled and crowed; like Dr. Doolittle, we talked to the animals.

It was a bee-hive of activity at haying and threshing and bailing time. When the first loads of hay had been pulled up and dumped onto the floor of the mow, the more adventuresome child would take a flying leap from the top of the granary and land in the middle of the dried clover. Later on, the hay not needed on the farm might be fed into the bailer. The big rectangles formed wondrous rooms for children and kittens. We buried ourselves in the shifting dunes of fresh wheat and oats, and tumbled in the piles of straw. There was an art to making a straw-stack, our father told me, and we were not allowed to make holes where the rain could get in and cause it to mold. Young heifers ate their way into the center of the stack, and the resulting tunnels were exciting places in which to hide.

Nothing could equal a big, old barn for rainy day amusement. A ladder leaned against the mow could inspire all kinds of upside-down circus stunts. Nooks and crannies provided endless possibilities for hiding-and-seeking. Sparrow eggs might be scrambled or beaten but not eaten. A pony could be curried or talked to; kittens were usually available for cuddling. A pet Bantam allowed me to carry her under my arm. Baby calves and pigs were unwilling pets.

A square wooden pump stood in the well in the feed-lot. Another well in the side yard had been abandoned and loosely covered. Pale frogs dived into the water from projecting bricks when the boards were lifted. A spring below the hill, enclosed in concrete, might hold a few sunfish. Doves returned to the apple trees every year.

We were sometimes envious of our friends who enjoyed the convenience of town living. I have since changed my mind. I believe we had something priceless. I wish I had a barn — for my grandchildren.

A "Word" from the Activity Director...

Another busy month, we first celebrated "Mother's Day" in May by having a dessert cart for all family members and their mothers. Each mother received a corsage. The following week we celebrated National Nursing Facility Week. Each day had a designated theme and special dress. Monday was "Bingo Bonanza" Day and "crazy shades" and each management team member took a turn as the "caller." Each resident received a ticket for just attending and then won additional tickets if they bingoed. At the end of the day, they put their tickets in drawings for the prize of choice. The winners were:

Mildred Healy - Stationery
Marvin Rutz - Alarm Clock
Margaret Thurber - Plant
Cora Presdorf - Watch
Josephine Watson - $5.00

Tuesday was "Carnival Day" and we dressed as clowns. We had carnival music and all types of carnival games. The residents collected tickets at each booth and put them in for a prize drawing of their choice. The winners were:

Eileen Boyd - Picture Frame
Elizabeth Goble - Bird Feeder
Marie Bohrer - Norman Rockwell Stationery
Marguerite Kumfer - $5.00

Wednesday was "Picnic Day" and we dressed in shorts. Even though the weather didn't cooperate, we still had a cookout for lunch. A big "thank you" to Jeff Fritz, our Maintenance Supervisor, for cooking all the hot dogs and hamburgers in the rain!

Thursday was "Take Me Out to the Ballgame Day" and we wore our t-shirts or sweatshirts with favorite team logo. As we arrived at the stadium, it began to rain. Our "die-hard" baseball fans wanted to wait it out, but the game was cancelled. We will be going to another Wizard's game soon on a "sunny" day!

Friday was "Party Day" and we wore our favorite hats. If you donated $1.00 to Cystic Fibrosis, you were allowed to wear jeans also. Over $100 was raised. Thanks to all who contributed!

We are looking forward to a picnic at Franke Park and trip to the zoo on Tuesday, May 28th. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate!

Looking on to June, some of the upcoming events are the Kiwanis Picnic on Wednesday, June 12, and of course, Father's Day. Family members are encouraged to attend our activities also.

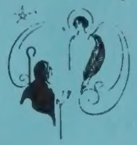
Jesus promised : "I will not leave you comfortless." John 14:18



Comfort

The quotation above is taken from the Farewell Discourse of Jesus to His disciples.

St. John devotes three full chapters to this discourse. It would do us all a lot of good to slowly and thoughtfully read all three (chapters 14, 15, 16). Truly beautiful!

The word "comfort" implies a time of sadness, anxiety, unrest in a person's life. We can all relate to that, for not one of us is exempt.

But the word "comfort" above all conveys thoughts of love, good-will, understanding, support. That is exactly what Jesus wants to assure His disciples when He says to them: "I will not leave you comfortless."

The comfort Jesus is speaking of flows from His sacrificial love, His promises, His eternal truths, empowered by the Holy Spirit — "The Comforter" — whom Jesus promised to send.

You see, Jesus is the son of God. He is the Savior of the world. He is your Best Friend!

Listen to Jesus! Cling to His Word! You will be comforted!

Chaplain

We would like to take the opportunity to invite you to the Resident Care Plan Conference. The Care Plan Conference is an interdisciplinary health team approach to define, update, and attempt to meet the needs and goals of our residents on an individual basis. Residents and families, your input into care planning is a valuable asset toward meeting the needs and goals of each resident. Any resident or family member wishing to attend their related Care Plan Conference should contact Gigi Moreno/MDS Coordinator at least 24 hours before the scheduled care plan date. June 6 - Career Nurse Assistants' Day

The purpose of this day is to recognize nurse assistants who have provided direct care for five or more years to residents in nursing and long-term care facilities. Career nurse assistants provide consistency of care over time and the event recognizes the contributions of this important health care worker.

Employee of the Month

Jack Knudson, Maintenance Assistant, has been chosen June's Employee of the Month. Jack has been with Regency since August of '95 and we've given him quite a workout. He's come in at 5:00 a.m. or late at night to shovel sidewalks; runs countless errands; and does many "little" things for the residents, not to mention all of his normal duties. His wife, Lisa, is our Subacute Clinical Coordinator. They live in Fort Wayne with sons Jacob and Anthony. We appreciate all of your hard work, Jack! Congratulations!

From Social Services

We have something new and exciting to offer—a Friendship Circle to reminisce about past times. We will be having it the second and fourth Fridays from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. in the Family Room. Patti Moehring, BSW, will be the group facilitator. Each month will be a special topic. The month of June will be about picnics and family reunions. So mark it on your calendar and bring your stories. If you plan to attend, let Patti or me know. Hope to see you!

Grandpa's Tree

Lon Myruski

Amid our sprawling meadow
Stands a lofty cottonwood
Sturdy, staunch, and steadfast,
Despite the years it's stood.
Bespreading boughs wave proudly
Like banners in the breeze,
The guidon of our farmstead—
We call it Grandpa's tree.

Once underneath its branches
As soft moonlight bathed the land,
Grandpa, touched by young love,
Asked Grandma for her hand.
They grew in love together;
They'd till and hoe and seed,
Then Grandma'd bring a basket—
They'd lunch 'neath Grandpa's tree.

And as the years ebbed onward,
How I'd toil at Father's side,
Reaping satisfaction
From work done with family pride.
Then we'd ride our old Ford tractor
Out 'cross the grassy sea
To sip the jug of water
Kept cool 'neath Grandpa's tree.

That cottonwood's still standing
Although some of us are gone,
And my heart is the haven
Where those yesterdays live on.
And sometimes close to sundown
In sunset reverie,
I reach to touch old mem'ries
That rest 'neath Grandpa's tree.

RE: Warren C. Lagrand,

Dear Mrs. Springer,

As we discussed on the phone today I did retrieve, from Parkview Hospital, some information and faxes concerning Warren's visit to the emergency room there on 8/15/96.

Enclosed you will find a copy of his chest x-ray which indicates the presence of bibasilar infiltrates very likely from aspiration pneumonia. I think the terminal event here was aspiration as judged both by the x-ray and from what was described to me by emergency room doctor who reported retrieving a lot of material from his tracheal tree.

As we discussed both the chemical pneumonitis set up at that point as well as not all the food can be aspirated and even though he may appear to have clinical improvement a chemical pneumonitis is an ongoing progressive process. He also was given IV antibiotics. In addition he received a KUB of the abdomen, which is enclosed, which showed that he had an ileus; this is where the bowel simply does not work or pump and therefore it becomes dilated and the abdomen becomes distended.

I believe that this all, hopefully, clarifies the issues that you have. If I can be of further service please do not hesitate to let me know.

Respectfully,

Steven C. Meyer, M.D.

Fort Wayne, Indiana

Dear Mr. and Mrs. LaGrand: Re: Loan No. 65371

You will find attached hereto pass book, amortization schedule and a supply of envelopes for your convenience in remitting your payments to this office. Your first monthly payment becomes due November 1, 1949 in the amount of $46.41 made up of the following:

Principal and interest	$40.51
Tax deposit	5.90
	$46.41

We have contacted the assessor's office relative to the assessment on this property and find that they have assessed the lot for $300.00 and the building at $1,700.00 which is a partial assessment only. This makes a total assessment of $2,000.00 with the tax rate being $35.40 per $1,000.00, making the year's taxes on this basis $70.80. One-twelfth of this amount is $5.90, the amount of your monthly deposit. We wish to advise that when the total assessment is made on the land and the completed buildings, then it follows that your tax deposit will be increased.

We wish to confirm the fact that your real estate taxes which become due in the Spring of 1950 and subsequent years will be paid from this office, but it will be your obligation to pay your personal and poll taxes.

We also wish to advise that annually, prior to May 1, it will be your obligation to file your mortgage exemption blank in the Auditor's office of the Court House. For your information the mortgage was executed by Arthur A. LaGrand and Helen G. LaGrand, was dated September 26, 1949, recorded September 29, 1949 in Book 498, page 531-33.

We are also attaching hereto Warranty Deed from William Russell Simmers, Ruth Francis Elliott and George Elliott, to you, recorded in Book 419, page 352.

When this case is entirely closed, we will at that time account to you for the closing fees.

If you have any questions concerning this case, do not hesitate to call this office.

Former Resident Dies

Chas. Schneider, 76, a former resident in this community died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. A. Legrande, in Fremont, where he was visiting, Tuesday afternoon after a short illness with pneumonia.

Mr. Schneider retired from his farm, two miles east of Elmore, in 1917, and took up his residence in Fremont. For sometime he has been spending the winters in Florida.

He was born near Hessville, Ohio, and had always lived in this community.

He leaves besides his wife two daughters, Mrs. A A. Legrande and Mrs. Bertha Mincer of Fremont, and a son, Emery Schneider, also of Fremont.

Funeral services are being held this Friday afternoon in the Hessville Lutheran Church. Burial will be made in Union cemetery here.

FORMER ELMORE MAN DIES IN FREMONT

June 20-1933

The body of Charles W. Schneider, 76, will be brought to Union cemetery here for interment Friday afternoon, following last rites in Hessville Lutheran church at 2 o'clock. H. E. Burmann, Elmore mortician, was called to Fremont to take charge of the body after death, Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Schneider, retired farmer and oil pumper well known in this vicinity, died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Le Grand, of Fremont, following a week's illness of pneumonia. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Schneider and his wife and their daughter, Mrs. LeGrand, and husband returned from their winter sojourn at Orlando Beach, Florida, and as he had seemed to be in his usual good health, his sudden death was a great shock to his relatives and friends. Besides his widow, a son, Emery A., and two daughters survive: Mrs. LeGrand and Mrs. Wm. Mincer, all of Fremont; one son, Perry, died in France in 1918, while in World War service. The Schneider family formerly lived about three miles southeast of Elmore.

Retired Farmer and Oil Worker Is Pneumonia Victim

Charles W. Schneider, 76, well known retired farmer and oil pumper, died Tuesday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock at the apartments of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur A. Le Grand, Berger block, 218 1-2 Arch street, following a week's illness.

Death was due to lobar pneumonia which developed within a short time after he was forced to take to his bed a week ago Tuesday suffering from a severe cold. He had been ill with a cold for several days previous to that time.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon with brief services at 1 o'clock from the home of Philip Schneider, 1410 Liberty street, a brother, and services at 2 o'clock from the Hessville Lutheran church in Hessville. Burial will be in the Elmore cemetery.

The remains were taken to the home of the brother Wednesday afternoon from the Henry Burman funeral parlors in Elmore where the body was taken for burial preparation following death.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Stevanna Burkett Schneider; two daughters, Mrs. William Mincer and Mrs. Arthur A. LeGrand; one son, Emery A. Schneider, all of Fremont; three brothers, Philip Schneider, Fremont; Louis Schneider of Washington township, and Christian Schneider of Hessville; two sisters, Mrs. Sophia Graham of Bradner, and Mrs. Lizzie Reed of Sandusky; 15 grandchildren and a large number of other more distant relatives and hosts of friends. One son Parry who was a member of Co. B., 307th Supply Train, died in November, 1918, while in service in France during the World War.

Mr. Schneider and wife and Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand returned May 13 from a six months' stay at Orlando, Florida, where they had spent the winters for the past 11 years. He appeared to be in his usual good health and news of the death of this well known man following the brief illness came as a severe shock to his many relatives and large circle of friends.

The deceased was a native of Washington township where he was born Nov. 3, 1856, the son of Christian and Sophia Strach Schneider, pioneer residents of the township. He engaged in farming and was also an oil pumper for 20 years for the Paragon Oil Company in the Washington township field where he pumped wells on his own property and adjoining leases.

He was united in marriage March 23, 1882, to Miss Stevanna Burkett by the late Rev. Puppin in Hessville. The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary March 23, 1932, at Orlando, Fla., where they were spending the winter with a gathering of relatives and friends.

In the fall of 1917 Mr. Schneider retired from the farm and moved to Fremont where he had since resided with the exception of the winter months which he spent in Florida. During the World War he served as janitor at the Atkinson school. He was a member of the Hessville Lutheran church and attended the Grace Lutheran church, Fremont, after his removal here.

CHRISTIAN SCHNEIDER
Obit.

Fremont Daily News, Wednesday, September 5, 1917, p.1, c.1, at Hayes Library, Fremont, Ohio.

PIONEER FARMER SUMMONED HOME

Christian Schneider died at Daughter's Home West of Hessville

Came to Fremont From Germany Many Years Ago - Seven Children and Other Relatives Survive - Member of Lutheran Church

Christian Schneider, 83, highly esteemed retired farmer, died Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of his daughter Mrs. Leonard Schwartz, west of Hessville on the Maumee Pike, after five weeks illness. Death was due to complication of diseases which developed after he had been taken ill with dropsy. For the last two weeks Mr. Schneider had been confined to his bed.

The funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Schwartz residence. Rev. C. G. Johannsen, pastor of the Lutheran Church at Hessville, will officiate and interment will be made in the Hessville cemetery.

Mr. Schneider was a native of Germany where he was born on October 9, 1834. At the age of fourteen he set out alone from his native country and with a party of immigrants came to this country. He first located in Fremont and then took up work near Hessville where he located permanently and spent the remainder of his years residing near the place. He opened a blacksmith shop at Hessville soon after he arrived in this country and operated the shop for some years.

When he was twenty years old he was united in marriage to Sophia Strauch at Hessville. A few years after the marriage he gave up blacksmithing and moved to a farm one mile north of Hessville where the couple resided many years. Fourteen years ago he retired from farm life and the couple then moved back to Hessville. Three years ago Mrs. Schneider died and from that time Mr. Schneider made his home with his daughter Mrs. Schwartz.

For many years he was a member of the Lutheran church at Hessville.

He is survived by four sons Chas. Schneider, Fremont; Louis Schneider, residing west of Hessville, Chris Schneider, residing north of Hessville; and Phillip Schneider, of Hessville; three daughters Mrs. Leonard Schwartz, Mrs. Jacob Reed, of Sandusky, and Mrs. Sophia Graham, of Bradner, twenty-nine grandchildren, a number of other relatives and many friends.

NOTE THE INFORMATION CALLED FOR ON THE REVERSE SIDE

CHRISTIAN SCHNEIDER, whose comfortable home is in the village of Hessville, Sandusky County, Ohio, owns his property here and also a valuable farm of eighty acres, which is situated in Washington Township. He was born in Germany, October 9, 1834, and is a son of Henry and Mary (Sehr) Schneider and a grandson of Christian Schneider, all of whom died in Germany.

Neither one of his parents nor any of the children except two ever crossed the Atlantic Ocean to America, and of these two Christian is the only survivor, the other brother, William, having died at Forest Hill, California, in 1908. In 1852 Christian Schneider landed at the port of New York and from there he made his way to Fremont, Ohio, where he began to work as a blacksmth for George Griner and later, at Woodville, he worked for Barnum and Whitmore, then for Captain Newfur and later for Ged Wolfe, at Hessville. After this he went to toolmaking at Rocky Ridge, for the Northern Division Railroad, going from there to Monroeville and later worked for one year at Rochester, Indiana. After returning to Ohio, he worked at Perrysburg, in Wood County, one year, then bought a shop of George Thrafe, at Hessville, and conducted it for two and one-half years. Later he bought eighty acres of land from Israel Eversole and another eighty from Isaac Eversole, and retains the latter farm but sold the former eighty to his son, C. W Schneider.

In 1855, at Hessville, Mr. Schneider was married to Miss Sophia Strock, a daughter of Philip and Elizabeth (Shriner) Strock. The Strock family came to Ohio from Germany in 1848 and lived in Washington Township, Sandusky County, the remainder of their lives. The children born to Christian Schneider and wife were the following: Charles H., who married Stevana Burkett, lives in Washington Township; Louisa, who married Leonard Schwartz, lives in Washington Township; Louis, who married Adella Whitney, lives in Washington Township; Elizabeth, who was married (first) to Christian Moll, and after his death to Jacob Reed, lives in Sandusky County; Christian H., who married Catherine Schmaltz, lives on the old homestead in Washington Township; Sophia, who married (first) George Mowery and after his death, Benjamin Graham, lives at Bradner, Ohio; Philip, who married Alta Bowmer, lives at Hessville, and Ida and William, both of whom are deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are old and valued members of the Lutheran Church. He takes no very active interest in politics, but he casts his vote in favor of the principles and candidates of the Democratic party. Mr. Schneider has witnessed many wonderful changes since he first came to Sandusky County, changes in farming, in methods of work at his trade and changes in modes of living. Some of these changes he considers of no material advantage, but others he has approved of and has often lent his influence to help bring them about. June 24, 1909, a family reunion was held at the home of Philip Schneider, son of our subject. A count was had and it was found that Christian and Sophia Schneider, their children and grand children, together with their respective wives and husbands, numbered fifty-eight persons.

Fremont Daily News, Friday, November 28, 1913, p.3, c.6, at Hayes.

PIONEER BURIED

The funeral of the late Mrs. Christian Schneider, Senior, was held from the Lutheran church in Hessville Wednesday morning with Rev. C.H. Althoff officiating, and following the service the remains were interred in the Hessville cemetery. Born March 26, 1824 in Nassau, Germany, the deceased was 79 years, 7 months and 27 days old. She came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Strock, from Germany to the United States when she was fourteen years of age and was united in marriage to Christian Schneider Sept. 12, 1845, and since that date had made her home near Hessville.

She was the mother of nine children, seven of whom together with thirty grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, two sisters and a loving husband survive.

Among those from away who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Elam Maurer and Miss Cora Maurer, of Bradner; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reed and family of Sandusky; Charles Heyman, Miss Elida Heyman and Mrs. Louisa Shepherd, of Huron; Charles Moll of Woodville; Mayor C.
